10.9 Unless a poll is demanded, the declaration of the chair of the result of the vote and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and the number or proportion of votes cast in favour or against need not be recorded.

11 Written resolutions

11.1 Subject to article 11.4, a written resolution of the Members passed in accordance with this article 11 shall have effect as if passed by the Members in a general meeting. A written resolution is passed:

A Member's agreement to a proposed written resolution, once signified, cannot be revoked. For these purposes:
- 11.6.1 if the document is sent to the Charity in hard copy form, it is authenticated if it bears the signature of the person sending it;
- 11.6.2 if the document is sent to the Charity in electronic form, it is authenticated if the identity of the sender is confirmed in a manner specified by the Charity or, where no such manner has been specified by the Charity, if it is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the sender and the Charity has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement.

13 Powers of Trustees

- 13.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Articles and any Special Resolution, the Trustees shall be responsible for the management of the Charity's business and may exercise all the powers of the Charity for that purpose, including to change the name of the Charity.

14 Appointment of Trustees

- 14.1 Any person who is willing to act as a Trustee, and who is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Trustee by resolution of the Trustees.
- 14.2 Where a maximum number of Trustees has been fixed, the appointment of a Trustee must not cause that number to be exceeded.

- 15.1 The usual term of office for a Trustee shall be three years, at the end of which they shall retire. Subject to article 15.2, a Trustee shall be eligible for reappointment by the Trustees for up to a further two terms, each of three years.
- 15.2 No Trustees shall serve for more than nine consecutive years, unless the Trustees consider it would be in the best interests of the Charity for a particular Trustee to continue to serve beyond that period and that Trustee is reappointed in accordance with the Articles.

- (b) the Trustee has been given a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the meeting either in person or in writing. The other Trustees must consider any representations made by the Trustee (or the Trustee's representative) and inform the Trustee of their decision following such consideration. There shall be no right of appeal from a decision of the Trustees to terminate the Trusteeship of a Trustee.

17 Proceedings of Trustees

- 17.1 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
- 17.2 Trustees shall meet at least two times a year.

- 19.2 If all the Trustees participating in the meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

20 Quorum for Trustees' meetings

- 20.1 The quorum for Trustees' meetings shall be two or 50% of the total number of Trustees, whichever is greater.
- 20.2 At a Trustees' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

- 20.3 If the total number of Trustees for the time being is less than the quorum required for decision-making by the Trustees, the Trustees shall not take any decision other than a decision to appoint further Trustees.

21 Chairing Trustees' meetings

- 21.1 The Trustees shall appoint one of their number as chair of Trustees and may determine the length of term for which the chair of Trustees is to serve in that office, although that term may be renewed or extended. 22 Decision-making by Trustees

- 22.1 The general rule about decision-making by Trustees is that any decision of the Trustees must be either a majority decision at a meeting or by written resolution, on the same terms as those set out at Article 11.
- 22.2 Each Trustee has one vote on each matter to be decided, except for the chair of the meeting who, in the event of an equality of votes, shall have a second or casting vote (unless, in accordance with the Articles, the chair of the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes).

23 Delegation by Trustees

- 23.1 The Trustees may delegate, on such terms of reference as they think fit, any of their powers or functions to any committee comprising two or more Trustees.
- 23.2 The Trustees may delegate the implementation of their decisions or day-to-day management of the affairs of the Charity to any person or committee.

- 23.6 The terms of any delegation to a committee shall be recorded in the minute book.
- 23.7 The Trustees may revoke or alter a delegation.
- 23.8 All acts and proceedings of any committee shall be fully and promptly reported to the Trustees.

24 Conflicts of interest

- 24.2 A Trustee must absent themselves from any discussions of the Trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between their duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).
- 24.3 If a conflict of interests arises for a Trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted Trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
- 24.3.1 the conflicted Trustee is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - 24.3.2 the conflicted Trustee does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting; and
 - 24.3.3 the unconflicted Trustees consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

In this article 24.3 a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a Trustee or to a connected person.

25 Minutes

- 25.1 The Trustees shall cause the Charity to keep the following records in writing and in permanent form:
- 25.1.1 minutes of proceedings at general meetings;
 - 25.1.2 minutes of meetings of the Trustees and of committees of the Trustees, including the names of the Trustees present at each such meeting;

Dear Miss Reed

Thank you for your email.

We have considered the trustees' further comments and can advise that we can accept the revised wording of the third object. The objects would therefore be as follows:

To promote the conservation, protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment;

To advance the education of the public in the conservation, protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment in matters relating to climate and ecological changes; and

The relief of those in need in the United Kingdom, in particular, but without limitation, those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability or financial hardship, who have been impacted by, or are vulnerable to the impacts of, climate and ecological changes.

We are proceeding on the basis that when carrying out work under the third purpose, the trustees will have a framework in place for identifying individual needs and ensuring that there is a verifiable link between the activities and the purpose.

It is important to note that we consider all cases on their own merits and whilst we are willing to accept the third purpose on this occasion, this may not be the case on all future applications.

If the trustees are happy to adopt the above wording, they will need to amend the objects clause (Clause 2) of the governing document to replace the current wording with the revised wording.

To confirm that this new wording is adopted please provide:

- * A copy of the Special Resolution showing the amendments, the date that they were adopted, and the date this was accepted by Companies House
 - * Copy of the minutes of the meeting at which these changes were approved and adopted (unless the Special Resolution was adopted as a Written Resolution)
 - * A copy of the signed Articles of Association with the amended objects
- Progressing the application

We would be grateful if you could provide a response by 19 January 2024.

Yours sincerely

Michelle Guy
